About the DeSoto House

The DeSoto House Hotel opened its doors in 1855 and continues to welcome guests with hospitality, charm and history, awarding us the title of "Illinois' Oldest Operating Hotel".

Throughout the years we have welcomed such memorable guests as Abraham Lincoln, William Jennings Bryan, as well as serving as presidential campaign headquarters for Ulysses S. Grant just to name a few.

We offer 55 graciously decorated Victorian style rooms named for historic personages who visited Galena as well as suites that feature a sitting parlor with fireplace. During your stay, you can take advantage of our wireless internet, in-room coffee and tea service, bottled water and our complimentary enclosed parking. Take time to enjoy our self-guided walking tour and our Quiet Room with historic video.

Galena's rich history comes alive the minute you step into our Lobby. Our staircase and ballroom are reminiscent of grand and gala events that took place throughout the past 160 years. The warm surroundings will transport you back to the 1850's and you will see why the Desoto House is Galena's legendary premier Hotel.

Today, the DeSoto House Hotel welcomes guests with genuine warmth and hospitality and is dedicated to making each guest feel that they are our first priority and a part of our ongoing history. Our professional and knowledgeable staff offers unsurpassed service and quality for lodging, dining, banquets, meetings and weddings.
